News From Some Of The Cottages

BABY COTTAGE.

Hello Friends,

We're bringing you more news of your Baby cottage friends. (Probably you're heard of us sirens before.)

Mr. Sams invited us to see "The Heart of the North" and we enjoyed it very much. We appreciate this very much.

Louise Martin, one of our big girls, went to the hospital last week to have her appendix removed. We miss her very much but we are glad to have Lorene Brown to stay with us while she is away.

We had the Civic clubs March 24th. Some of us were in the program. Gertie Smith was the Grandmother, Hilda Barnes and Jackie Porterfield were her grand-children. Francis Stricklin, Peggy Land, and Rachel Bullard were the colored children, and Ethel Brotherton brought the program to a close by saying, "That's all folks."

School will be closing pretty soon and Mary Duffie Coppedge, one of our big girls, will graduate. Our many summer privileges will soon follow this.

Several of us have received our summer clothing boxes and they have some of the cutest dresses, sun-suits, and other things in them. We thank our friends very much for them.

We are going to have an Easter egg hunt Saturday and maybe the Easter Bunny will come. All of us school children went on an egg hunt Thursday evening.

Two new girls have come to live with us. They are Mary Louise and Vivian Ann Boles. Mary is three years old and is the baby of the campus. Vivian is five years old and has been sick since she's been here.

We spring-cleaned our house and are ready for commencement now. We've had visitors from several churches and we're always glad to have you.

LEE'S COTTAGE

Here we are again, folks, to bring you the news of the month.

We are feeling fine and are all happy because school will be out in three weeks. All of us have worked hard this past school year and are looking forward to vacation time.

On March 24th, the Civic Club members of Statesville and Mooresville were here at a dinner which they held annually at Barium.

A week later, there was a basketball and wrestling banquet. We had a good basketball season. The girls were first in the conference and the boys came second. The wrestling team didn't have quite as good season as usual but came out all right.

A very good friend of ours has made it possible for us to secure some fine baseball equipment. We are looking forward to having a lot of fun playing baseball this summer.

We were glad to have one of the followers of Houdini, a magician by the name of Mr. Ray Gooding, to perform for us. He showed us that the hand can be quicker than the eye. We also enjoyed the singing of the "Do Ra Me Trio" from station WSTP, Salisbury, N. C.

They were all from Statesville.

Out on the truck farm we are starting in with the year's planting and expect to have a good harvest. Three of our boys, Marshal Norris, Ray Lewis and Charles Smith have gone on the carpenter group. O. D. Mundy has gone on Mr. Grier's group, which is an electrical and plumbing group combined.

So long till next month. We'll be back in a flash with a flash.

—Jack McCall.

HOWARD COTTAGE.

Hello Folks,

Some of our girls are in the County Commencement at Statesville today, April 1st. They are going to play parts of Indians, Cowboys, Mountain people, Negroes and sing southern songs of Stephen Foster. Our girls and boys are going to play the part of Mountain people.

Mr. Sams invited us to see Shirley Temple in "The Little Princess". We wish to thank him very much.

The Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions Clubs of Statesville and Mooresville met with us last Friday night for a banquet dinner and some of our girls and boys gave a program.

It is almost time for Easter and we will be glad, because our Christian Endeavor teacher and preacher are going to take us to the camp on an Easter egg hunt. Good-bye until next month.

—Mary Alice Stevens.

ANNIE LOUISE.

Hello Folks,

Our school will be out in three more weeks and then commencement will follow.

Our school was well represented in the County Music Festival today in Statesville. It was presented by four hundred children of the county schools. Pat Hooten and Martha Price from our cottage were in it.

Betty Joe Smith is very proud of her little niece, Helen Patricia Mills, who is about three weeks old.

Annie Star Langley, Elizabeth Johnson, Peggy Coffey, Betty Lou Hooten and Gertrude Bryant received show tickets this week for greatest improvement in school work during the month.

We went to see Shirley Temple in "The Little Princess", and enjoyed it very much.

Bobby Pfaff, Myrtle Rushing, Betty Williams, Margaret Steed and Gwendolyn Landrum have had nice visits from their home folks.

The Ladies of Circle number 2 of the Buffalo Auxiliary at Sanford sent us a lovely spread for one of our beds.

The basketball banquet was Friday night. Gertrude Bryant, one of our girls who played on the eighth grade team, received a letter.

A magician from Statesville gave us a real nice program Saturday night. We enjoyed it very much.

Members of Mrs. Pressly's girls Circle of Goshen Church at Belmont came to see us today and we enjoyed their visit. They brought a beautiful quilt for us, and left some other things for the Home.

Miss Greene will have her music recital on April 14th. We all are looking forward to this occasion.

Roland Gent's Picture will Appear Next Month.

INFIRMARY

Dear Readers,

Only a few days now until school is out. Most of us can hardly wait because we have a lot to look forward to—vacations and going down to Camp Fellowship for a week.

We have started a new sport for the girls, softball. Everyone seems to like it. Nancy, Sadie and Geraldine go out for it. We are going to play about eight games. We play Kannapolis Wednesday week.

Mrs. McNatt had a visit from her son, Rev. Philip McNatt and family. They brought their new born baby with them, a girl. She's awfully sweet.

We have been having quite a few patients, but a lot of them are well now. We have one patient that has just had her tonsils removed. She is getting along nicely.

We have heard a lot about the latest game "Chinese Checkers". Miss Lackey seems to be the champion player here at the Infirmary.

Mr. Sams invited us to the picture "Heart of the North". Thank you, Mr. Sams.

Mrs. D. S. Currie and daughter, Miss Mary Currie of Parkton, and Mrs. Eddie Brown of Flora Macdonald College, cousins of Mrs. McNatt, visited the Infirmary.

Be with you again next month.

—Lillie McDonald.

WOMAN'S BUILDING

Dear Friends,

In trying to write what all happened this month it seems impossible to do so, because so many things have happened.

Our annual civic club banquet was held and several of the girls participated in the program given that night. Glenn Lindsey, Sara Parcell, Mabel Shoaf, Ruth Cole, Sallie Farmer, Alice Jones, Helen Price, Isabel Monroe and Agnes Coppedge were characters in the program. I think everyone who attended the banquet thoroughly enjoyed it.

For the first time this year some of the girls attended a Bible Study Class at Mitchell College. This summer they will teach the smaller ones to know more about Christ. The ones who attended were Miss Eugene White, who is librarian, Thelma Robards, Johnnie Burgin, Nancy Parcell, Louise Martin and Nancy Stafford.

Our basketball banquet was on March 31 and of course, as you already know, these girls were champions of the South Piedmont Conference and the boys were second. Grace Coppedge was elected captain of next year's team and Rex Lewis was elected captain of the boys' team. The two players who were rated the most valuable by their teammates were Bessie Kennedy and Lee Spencer.

Wilma Jessup, Bessie Kennedy and Lee Spencer received a medal. Bessie and Lee were for the most valuable, and Wilma's for most improvement. Miller Blue, of the wrestling team, also received one. These medals were given by one of Barium's best friends, Mr. Alwyn Morrison, of Statesville.

We will miss the Seniors when they leave us in about six weeks. Here's hoping them lots of luck.

That is just about all of the news. I started with lots to write but it seems as though it gave out before I expected it to.

So long until next month.

March's Income From Synod Is Good

Synod	$7,739.19	$1,446.79	11 c	98.5c

For the third consecutive month the giving of the Synod of North Carolina to Barium Springs has been of such a nature as to shorten the difference in receipts that was noted on December 31, 1937. On March 31st, Synod was $1,151.69 behind its total on March 31, 1938. This was divided between the Thanksgiving and regular gifts at $415.20 and $736.49, respectively. March's receipts were therefore $640.02 better than in March a year ago, because the difference in the two years' income was $1,791.71 on February 28th.

Before going to press with The Messenger this month, the income from the Synod of North Carolina on the old year had far surpassed that of those days in April, 1938, when the receipt books were held open to record the gifts on the proper year. On April 14th, Synod needed to forward $266.19 to exactly equal the final 1937-1938 total, and there was a likelihood that this would happen.

In the table of receipts of March, the only change in the standing of the Presbyteries occurred between Mecklenburg and Orange. Mecklenburg forged ahead to fourth position in the Synod, displacing Orange which had occupied that berth at the end of February. On March 31st, Albemarle and Orange Presbyteries had the distinction of having already surpassed their final figures for 1937-1938. Several of the other Presbyteries may possibly do that by the time the concluding tabulation is prepared after the books are closed on 1938-1939.

The four Presbyteries which have exceeded the 1937 Thanksgiving Offering and the amount of excess are Orange, $296.64; Winston-Salem, $253.81; Concord, $243.10, and Albemarle, $202.98. Those in arrears on Thanksgiving and the amount behind were Fayetteville, $566.71; Mecklenburg, $498.38; Kings Mountain, $150.14; Wilmington, $117.87, and Granville, $107.75.

The following shows the Thanksgiving comparisons, the final of which will appear next month on the 1938 Thanksgiving Offering:

1938 through Mar. 31

Presbytery 1937 Final Mar. 31

Albemarle $2,226.14 $2,429.12

241 CHURCHES NOW AHEAD

During March 57 Churches
Were Transferred to
"Exceeders"

During the month of March, 57 churches could be classified with 184 others which had previously exceeded the 1937-1938 totals given to Barium Springs, giving a current total of 241 churches that have contributed more in the past 12 months than in the immediate preceding fiscal period. Quite a few other churches will enter this grouping during the first half of April, as last-minute gifts are recorded at Barium Springs, and the final number will be close to 300 churches. This will mean, therefore, that well over 50% of the churches of the North Carolina Synod will give as much or more to Barium in the 1938-1939 than was contributed in 1937-1938.

The 241 churches who were on the even or positive side of the ledger on March 31st are as follows:

GOOD NEWS

Add Tabor Sunday School, in Concord Presbytery, to the once-a-monthers. Tabor Sunday School inaugurated the offering-per-month plan in March and has forwarded the initial contribution to Barium Springs for that month.

In the closing days of 1938-1939 special contributions came to Barium from Sunday Schools that do not aid regularly. Morganton Sunday School, in Concord Presbytery, sent a $50.00 check, and $37.50 was forwarded to this Home by the Children's Division of the Sugaw Creek Sunday School. Maybe it will not be long before these groups can be included among the regular contributors.

ANNUAL SUPPER OF CIVIC CLUBS

Held at Barium on March
24th. - Attendance Unusually Large

From The Statesville Daily.

Barium Springs, March 25.—Officials at Barium Springs had prepared for 100 more guests than attended the annual civic club supper at the Orphanage last year, and it was well that this foresight was exercised, for the number of guests here last night from three civic clubs in Statesville and two in Mooresville for the sixteenth consecutive supper for these clubs took up all but ten of the places arranged. A seating capacity of 505 was available, and almost 200 others were served at the second table after the guests had departed.

Without any preliminaries, except the asking of the blessing by Rev. R. A. White, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Mooresville, the guests and those children who ate with the visitors thoroughly enjoyed a delicious meal that consisted of baked ham, sausage, grits, candied yams, black-eyed peas, pickles, rolls, butter, coffee, milk, cake and ice cream. The enjoyment of the food was indicated both by the quantity consumed and by the comments made.

The program was under the direction of Miss Rebekah Carpenter, assisted by Misses Laura Grey Green and Elizabeth McKethan and could best be entitled "Pictures Through Song" or strolling down memory's lane. A stage had been erected and was decorated with evergreens in the background, with a moon shining through the pines, and the footlights were made attractive through a generous arrangement of artificial tulips for reflection. The lights of the dining room were switched off and as the footlights came on, Gertie Smith, as the grandmother, and Jacquelin Porterfield and Hilda Barnes, as the grandchildren, came on the stage. The grandmother seated herself, with a grandchild on each side, and slowly started turning the pages of a memory book. As each page was turned, a chorus was heard singing the appropriate song in the background and on to the stage came individuals who did the necessary pantomimes.

"School Days" was portrayed by Betty Jo Smith and George Landrum; "In the Evening by the Moonlight" by Paul Reid, Douglas Ryder, Marshall Norris and Herbert McMasters (all lights were off during this scene, with only the moon glowing); "My Wild Irish Rose," by Agnes Coppedge; "Umbrellas" by Vance Smith; "Annie Laurie" by Sallie Farmer; "Short'ning Bread" by Isabel Monroe, Rachel Bullard, May Francis Stricklin and Peggy Land; "Sweet and Low" by Alice Jones; "Little Old Lady" by Marie Morgan; a Square dance was indulged in by Ruth Cole, Mabel Shoaf, Sara Parcell, Glenn Lindsay, Arthur Roach, Gwyn Fletcher, Henry Pittman and Ed Cole; "Smilin' Through" by Helen Price and Lee Spencer, and "Old Black Joe" by John Ellis.

The chorus members, who never publicly appeared, were Virginia Cranfill, Bertha Lee Broome, Mary Lynn Jones, Ernestine Garrett, Grace Cayton, Lillie Bryant, Lillie Bell Smith, Lillian Sanders, Betty Lou Williams, Martha Price, Lillie McDonald, Daisy Cayton, Johnnie Burgin, Tommy Lindsay, and Pleas Norman.

After "Old Black Joe" left the stage, Ethel Brotherton came out, took her place in the center of the stage and said "That's all folks" to conclude the sixteenth annual
